

The Sampson Arts Council is proud to announce the following 2010-2011 NC Arts Council Grassroots Arts Program subgrant recipients.

David F. King

Sampson County History Museum, Inc.

Artist services for Craft Demonstration Day

Nancy Heath

Sampson County Schools ArtsCamp

Week long Summer program for Sampson County students, grades K-8. Students receive instruction in Theatre Arts, Dance, Visual Art, Design and Music.

Lee Howard

Poetry Out Loud – Clinton High School

State and national poetry competition sponsored by the National Endowment for the Arts and the Poetry Foundation. Funds will be used for technical/production staff and Artist contracts.

Linda Jewell Carr

Sampson Early College High School

Virginia Stage Company production of Julius Caesar

Ray Jordan

Class Acts-Sampson CenterStage for Students

Two performances of the African-American Dance Ensemble. The performances will impact approximately 2,000 Clinton City and Sampson County School's students in grades 5 and 6.

Due to additional funding, the subgrant application process has been extended until December 3, 2010.

Application forms and grant guidelines are available on the Sampson Arts Council's website at www.sampsonarts.org (under "Links") or may be picked up at the Victor R. Small House at 709 College Street in Clinton. Call to arrange a time to stop by. The Sampson Arts Council will also mail applications upon request. For questions or more information contact Kara Donatelli at 910-596-2533 or at director@sampsonarts.org.